

UCONN HUMAN RIGHTS INITIATIVE FUNDING APPLICATION, 2009-2010

Criteria for Funding of Events and Programs during the 2009-2010 Academic Year

Funding Available: Funds for UConn Human Rights Initiative: From Ideas to Action events will normally be limited to a maximum of $2,500. Under exceptional circumstances, the committee may approve a higher amount depending upon the significance of the speaker or event.

Types of Events Eligible for Support: Funding is available to pay for speaker's honoraria, speaker travel and meals, for group performances, round table discussions, programs, or promotional materials.

Application Deadline: The application deadline is March 31, 2009.

Who May Apply: Funding will be available to representatives of university departments, schools, colleges, student groups, institutes, and cultural centers.

Criteria For Selection: A faculty and student review committee will consider the following criteria when selecting what organizations will receive funding:

- Clear focus on human rights
- Creates, fosters and/or expands an interest in human rights
- Contributes to the UConn Human Rights Initiative as a whole and does not significantly duplicate another event, and adds to a wide range of types of events
- Quality of speaker or event
- Interdisciplinary appeal
- Appeal to students, faculty, and general public
- Practical, feasible, well-planned event
- Reasonable cost and proportional to the impact of event
